

AFJM DECALOGUE

The Association of the Family of Jesus and Mary is a group of people who wants:

- 1- To learn to live "going out", from oneself towards others, To learn to walk and live synodally as Companions in Mission, lay people and religious, in collaboration and mutual trust.
- 2- To share the charism of St. Claudine with a true family spirit: faith, kindness, forgiveness, reconciliation, and healing.
- 3- To grow in the lay vocation, committed to the mission of the Church and the Religious of Jesus and Mary.
- 4- To humbly contribute to living in a more humane world, from Ignatian spirituality and discernment.
- 5- To promote spaces of fraternity, help, listening, prayer, and service.
- 6- To show sensitivity and closeness to children, young people, and those most in need.
- 7- To internalize the spirit of joy and an attitude of gratitude as a way of life.
- 8- To care for our environment and live in harmony with nature.
- 9- To receive spiritual and human formation and promote communion with others.
- 10- 10. To live our faith in AFJM groups to give life to the charism.

St. Claudine continues to invite us today, will you join us?

How good God is!